Postings are based on the information provided by the employer or person offering the job/internship. Due to the volume of job and internship postings received, Career Planning and Development is unable to fully research the integrity of each organization or person that posts a job vacancy or internship or guarantee that all jobs or internships are still available.

It is the responsibility of each individual job seeker to research the integrity of the organization(s) to which he/she is applying and to verify the specific information pertaining to the job posting. Job seekers should exercise due diligence and use common sense and caution when applying for or accepting any position.

For your privacy and protection when applying to a job online, it is advisable that you do not give your Social Security number to a prospective employer, provide credit card or bank account information, or perform any sort of monetary transaction.
